By the King.

A PROCLAMATION

Requiring all Officers or Souldiers that ſerved in the Armies of any the late Uſurped Powers, and have been Disbanded, Caſhiered, or turned out, to depart the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, before the Twentieth day of this inſtant November.

CHARLES R.

THe Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, for prevention of ill conſequences which may enſue by the frequent reſort and abode of diſcontented Officers and Souldiers of the late Army in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, the Suburbs thereof, and places adjacent, hath thought fit (by and with the Advice of his Priby Council) to renew and continue His former Proclamations in this behalf: And doth by this His Royal Proclamation Publiſh and Declare, and alſo ſtraitly Charge and Command, That all and every perſon and perſons being heretofore an Officer or Souldier ſerving in any the Armies of the late Uſurped Powers, and have been Disbanded, Caſhiered or turned out of the ſame, who are not under Impriſonment, or other legal Reſtraint, or have not their conſtant Habitations and Families within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, or the Suburbs thereof, or who cannot procure or obtain a Licence from the Council-Board in that behalf, do on or before the Twentieth day of this inſtant November, depart out of the ſaid Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the Liberties and Suburbs thereof, and not return again, or come within Twenty miles of the ſame Cities of London and Weſtminſter, or either of them, until after the Twentieth day of May next enſuing: And that they or any of them do not, nor ſhall not in the mean time wear, uſe, carry, or ride with any Sword, Piſtol, or other Arms or Weapons; And herein His Majeſty doth expect from all perſons concerned, a due and punctual ſubmiſſion and conformity, at their perils, upon pain of His high diſpleaſure. Willing and hereby commanding the Lieutenans, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of Peace, Conſtables, and other Officers and Miniſters of and in the ſeveral Counties, Cities, and places of this Kingdom, and Dominion of Wales, to apprehend and ſeize the perſons, and take away the Arms and Weapons of all ſuch as ſhall be found faulty, or offenders in, or contrary to the purport, true intent and meaning of this His Majeſties Royal Proclamation, and them to ſend to the Goal of the City or County where they are apprehended, ſending the Lords of His Majeſties Priby Council a Note of their Names, and of their particular Offences, that ſo they may be proceeded againſt for their contempts, according to Juſtice.

Given at the Court at Whitehall the Third day of November, 1664.

God ſave the King.
